

EXODUS AND EMANCIPATION

An Interweaving of Two Slave Narratives

Essays & Reflections on the Bible and African-American Slavery

Rabbi Dr. Kenneth Chelst

Professor of Operations Research
Department of Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering
Wayne State University
Detroit, MI 48202
kchelst@wayne.edu

Exodus and Emancipation

In recognition of the generous patronage of

Flora S. Hoffman,

this book is dedicated to her memory and the loving memory of her dearly beloved parents

Meyer and Bessie Beckman

and cherished memory of her dearly beloved daughter

Myra Jacqueline Hoffman,

“gone but not forgotten.”

Exodus and Emancipation

An Interweaving of Two Slave Narratives

Table of Contents

	Page Number
Preface	1
Introduction	3
Endnotes for pages 3-5	5
Section One: Journey into Slavery	7
1. The Israelite Beginnings of Slavery	7
Uncertainty	8
Brother selling brother	10
State-of-Mind	13
2. Beginnings of the Atlantic Slave Trade	15
Slaves: Captives of War	16
Slaves: Poverty and Justice	17
State-of-Mind	20
Journey to the coast	21
3. Group Journey into Slavery	22
Pharaoh's Wagons	22
Middle Passage	27
Endnotes for pages 7-31	31
Section Two: Slave Experience
Theme: Political Slavery vs. Personal Chattel
4. Evolution and Institutionalization of Slavery	39
Political Enslavement of the Israelites	39
The Egyptian Masses and Personal Enslavement	42
African American Slavery: Evolving Legal Structure	43
Animal Imagery	51
5. Breaking the Human Spirit	53
Affliction	53
Women in Slavery	54
Separating Husband and Wife	56
Rape	58
6. The Burdens of Slavery	60
Hard Work	60
The Whip and the African-American Slave	62
Leaders as Instruments of Oppression	63
Work – African-American Slaves	64
Laziness	71
Lying by Master and Slave	72
7. Cultural Identity	79
What's in a Name	79
African-American Names	83
Group Name: Hebrew	85
Group Name: Negro	86
African Cultural Identity	87
Endnotes for pages 39-90	90

8. Population growth	101
Israelite Population	101
African-American population	103
9. Controlling the Population	108
Egyptian slave bureaucracy	111
Plantation Overseers and Slave Drivers	111
Controlling African-American Slaves	114
10. Rebellion	116
Passive and Active Rebellion: Israelites	116
Day-to-Day Resistance of Enslaved Blacks	120
Major Slave Rebellions in North America	124
11. Righteous Among the Nations	126
Egyptian Princess	126
Quakers	128
12. Religion of the slave	130
Israelite God of Their Forefathers	130
The Religion of African American Slaves	134
13. Hope	139
Israelite Traditions	139
African-American hope	141
14. Children's Voices	144
Miriam	144
African-American Children	145
15. Leadership	147
The Unique Individual - Joseph in Potiphar's House and Uncle Tom	147
Antebellum Leadership among African Americans	149
Tribal Leaders of Israel	154
Moses and Aaron	157
Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass	160
Endnotes for pages 101-164	164

Section Three: Freedom's Road

Theme: Exodus and Emancipation	175
16. Social and Psychological Needs of the Oppressed	176
Justice: Punishment Measure for Measure	177
Compensation – From the Oppressor	185
Fear of Continued Victimization	188
Self-Image	195
The Oppressor's Superior Culture	211
17. Hasty Departures	218
Unleavened bread	218
Runaways and Contraband of War	220
18. Knowing and Perceiving God – Seeing is Believing	224
All Powerful God	225
African Americans Perceived God	227
God Who Sees and Knows	228
God of Justice and Retribution	230
Other Attributes	231
God's Hand in the Civil War	233
Endnotes for pages 171-238	241

19. Breaking the Will of the Oppressors	252
Widespread Destruction	253
Union Army Policy on Destruction	255
Oppressors Reassert Control	259
Devastated Aftermath	261
Breaking the Will of the Leadership	262
Leader Incredulity	263
Leadership Legitimacy	264
Signs, Wonders, and Negotiations	267
The South Considers Emancipation	270
Climax: Negotiating a Lost Cause	271
20. The Celebration of Freedom	275
The Eve of Emancipation	277
Commemorative Celebration	282
African Americans Celebrate Emancipation	285
Celebrating Gradual Emancipation	286
21. Remembering	293
Shame	293
Relevance and Re-experience as Jews Study their History	295
Remembering Without Shame	297
The Egyptian Experience as a Positive Value	298
Celebration in Darkness	299
Endnotes for pages 252-301	301
22. Freedom's Troubled Journey through Stages	310
Israelite Freedom: Five Stages	311
African-American Freedom: Five Stages	324
African Americans as a Nation	336
Americans: One People and One nation Under God	339
Searching in the Wilderness	340
23. Freedom's Transformation and Consequences	347
Education and Freedom	347
Family Unit	360
Economic Security and Freedom	363
Travel	366
Religious Independence	371
Archenemies and Never Ending Struggle	374
Endnotes for pages 310 - 378	378

Illustrations

	Page
1. Photograph of scars from whippings.	4
2. Slaves tied together as they were marched towards the sea	21
3. Ian Wilson's map of the area surrounding Goshen.	25
4. Slave Distribution in 1790	27
5. Internal Slave Trade 1810-1860	27
6. Slaves tightly packed in the hold of a ship	29
7. Pharaoh's Daughter Finds Baby Moses . 1638 Nicolas Poussin (1594-1665). Oil on canvas. Louvre, Paris	127
8. Infant in Field with Parent	145
9. Child Hauling Vegetables	146
10. Slave catcher warning in Boston.	190
11. The riots in New York: The mob lynching a Negro in Clarkson Street.	191
12. The burning of a freedmen's school during a riot in Memphis in 1866.	193
13. 1861 oil painting, "The Hunted Slaves," English artist Richard Ansdell.	195
14. Negro guard asks General Grant to throw away his cigar before entering an army storehouse.	203
15. Confederate generals Johnson and Stewart as prisoners under Negro guard.	203
16. Recruiting poster: Men of Color – To Arms!	205
17. Fort Pillow massacre of surrendered blacks.	206
18. The 20 th U.S. Colored Infantry received its colors in Union Square, New York.	208
19. Marching On! The Fifty-Fifth Massachusetts Colored Regiment marches into Charleston on February 21, 1865	209
20. A cartoonist's depiction of northerners' perceptions of the "rebel chivalry."	216
21. "Emancipation" by William Travis – a mural of slaves fleeing at night	221
22. Reproduction of the program of Fast-day Services at Beth Shalome Synagogue, Richmond	238
23. Emancipation celebration in Washington, D.C. – April 19, 1862	282
24. Black soldier reading the Emancipation Proclamation in a slave cabin	284
25. "Am I Not a Man and a Brother" - Motto and image that appeared on banners and china	290
26. Program for January 1 st Celebration Columbus, Georgia (1973)	293
27. Program for September 20 th & 21 st Celebration, Gallia County, Ohio (1980)	293
28. Emancipation Day Parade, Richmond, Virginia, Monday, April 3, 1905	296